

I do not want to lose the ability to listen to a quality, moral radio station like KLOVE, due to a redistribution of providing translator service to low power FM stations. Disrupting a listener supported station, such as KLOVE, would be unconscionable. Please do not allow KLOVE to be displaced.
Thank you.